Krakow Tigers

American football - a much maligned and misunderstood sport - has finally arrived in Krakow. Contrary to common perceptions of 'Gridiron', the sport is a fascinated blend of athleticism and tactics that rewards anyone who takes the ten minutes to learn how the rules work. Krakow Tigers are a bunch of guys who did just that and, after forming in 2006, they are now training with full equipment and competing in Poland's own American Football league. They are always looking to recruit anyone interested in the game, so get in contact with them if you fancy yourself as the latest daredevil running back or hard-hitting defensive linebacker.
